

Bangladesh (Compared with other countries in WHO South-east Asia Region)

Indicator:

Prepaid plans as % of private expenditure on health, 2000

Definition: Prepaid Private risk pooling plans are the outlays of private social insurance schemes, commercial and non-profit (mutual) insurance schemes, health maintenance organizations and other agents managing prepaid medical and paramedical benefits, including the operating costs of these schemes.

Country	Ordered by Prepaid plans as % of private expenditure on health, 2000
Thailand	9.6
Indonesia	8.2
Sri Lanka	1.1
Bangladesh	.0
Bhutan	.0
Democratic People's Republic of Korea	.0
India	.0
Maldives	.0
Myanmar	.0
Nepal	.0
Timor-Leste	-

<http://www3.who.int/whosis/country/compare.cfm?language=english&country=bgd&indicator=strPrepa...>